Youngsters play policemen

STRANGER danger and road safety issues were the focus of a visit to the Deniliquin Police Station for a lucky group of local children last week.

Three Intereach Family Day Care carers and 13 children enjoyed an excursion to the local police station for a closer look behind the scenes.

The children were given the unique opportunity to sit behind the wheel of a real police car, and operate the flashing lights.

Deniliquin Police youth liaison officer Senior Constable Di Chilton spoke to the children about important safety issues.

She spoke about the importance of not talking to strangers and always holding an adult's hand when crossing the road. Popular police mascot, Constable Charlie the Penguin, also popped in to say hello.
